About ISD

ISD a global counter-extremism organisation dedicated to powering new generations against hate and extremism. For 10 years, we have responded to the rising challenge of extremist movements and the ideologies that underpin them, delivering cutting-edge programmes built from world-leading expertise in communications and technology, grassroots networks, knowledge and research, and policy advice.

Position summary

We are looking for graduate interns to join our busy team for a placement of 6 months. We welcome applications from those with interest across all areas of our work. Candidates will work closely with members of staff on meaningful and interesting aspects of a range of ISD programmes.

Person specification

Essential

- 2:1 or higher undergraduate degree from a reputable University
- Exceptional written and spoken English
- Clear, fluent and concise oral and written communication skills
- Excellent attention to detail
- Highly organised with the ability to be flexible, multi-task and respond proactively
- An understanding of and commitment to ISD's core mission
- A good team player, with flexibility, enthusiasm and a 'can do' attitude

Desirable

- Masters degree from a reputable University
- Previous work experience, particularly in the field of counter extremism
- Additional languages an asset

The primary value of volunteering with ISD is the contribution candidates make to our vital work to counter extremism and hate speech globally. To make sure our Interns benefit from spending their time with ISD as much as the charity does, ISD is committed to supporting volunteers through a structured personal development programme aimed at encouraging professional and personal growth. This includes opportunities for training, personal development, networking, and mentoring.

Application process

We are recruiting for 1-2 Interns to work across a number of programmes. In your application, please specify if any particular programme is of more interest than others.

To apply, please send your CV (2 pages) and a cover letter (1 page) which demonstrates your experience and why you would like this position. Please send applications to info@isdglobal.org referenced INTERN2017 by Friday 21st July 2017.

Please note that only short-listed candidates will be contacted and applications without a covering letter will not be considered. All applicants must have either EU status or right of employment within the UK.
