

Survey on QAnon and Conspiracy Beliefs

Toplines

Study prepared by Professor Brian Schaffner (Tufts University), supported by ISD and funded by Luminare.

Survey methodology

The survey was fielded online on September 18th-20th, 2020 using respondents provided by Lucid. After removing respondents who failed attention check items, the final sample was 4,057 American adults. Post-stratification weights were used to ensure that the sample was representative of American adults on targets from the American Community Survey. The survey was weighted on age, region, gender, race, education, and the interaction of race and education. Weights ranged from .432 to 3.862. The survey has a margin of error of ± 1.7 percentage points, though the margin of error will be larger for subgroups.

At the end of the survey, respondents were debriefed about each of the conspiracy claims and were told that each had been proven untrue by reputable sources. We also provided respondents with links to resources that debunk these conspiracies and an ISD resource that explains how to identify false conspiracy theories.
